What to expect:

Let's say that Carl Perkins hooked up with Peter Pan Speedrock, and after a few months their beautiful baby girl, Sue, is born. And a pretty, headstrong baby it is. We just don't know which Peter Pan is the daddy, but as drummers always have the strongest seed...

Fast Forward a good 20 years, and our cute Sue goes to an awesome rock festival. As she wanders into the backstage area, Lemmy from Motörhead falls from stage with a Boner to Raise Hell...

Hypothetically speaking: what would THIS love child sound like?
Well... * toothpaste smile* – That's Fat Bastard baby!

Some Quotes:

Luminous Dash – Alcatraz 2022 : “The Swamp Stage was the biggest stage in the history of Fat Bastard. They used it to the fullest.”

Musika.be – Frietrock 2022: “Fat Bastard immediately set the bar high, added more speed and drive to it, as result the roof flew off completely.

Musika.be - Devils Rock for an Angel 2018: “We saw an energetic and agile band on stage that won the hearts of the crowd in no time.”

MusicZine.be - Frietrock 2018: “Fat Bastard combines pure building of an impassable wall of sound with humor and witticism.”

Mindview.be – Distortion Fest 2011: “The level of this concert is very high and is worth a spot on the main stage of the festival. According to some they played the best gig of the fest. An opinion that is easy to defend.”
